Regional Operations

The mission of the Department of Behavioral and Developmental Services (BDS) is to join with individuals, families, and communities to encourage and assist people with developmental disabilities, mental health disorders and substance abuse disorders to achieve good health and meaningful living. Most of our services available to Maine citizens are provided through BDS regional offices or through contracts with over 250 private agencies throughout the State.

BDS Regional Offices work closely with local families, community service providers, and civic groups and are located in three parts of the state:

Region I (Southern Maine) serves individuals and families in York and Cumberland Counties.
